

Thelma Wells - Generation Love Conference - Sample Questions

1. Thelma, please tell us how God led you to do the ministries you do. You have a big story about your childhood and how God has healed and helped you rise. What is your story?
2. You have lived through segregation and integration and we are struggling with that still today in our country. What are the consequences of those? What would you say to our nation today, Thelma?
3. Depending on where we live, we may see a lot of prejudice and racial tension. I may not see it often, but my friends of different races do. How do we find more peace and love for each other. What can we do?
4. Now, moving into the family relationships, how does all this affect families and what can families do?
5. Your new ministry is called "Generation Love." Please tell us about that. Is it a passion, a calling, or both for you and your family?
6. With the majority of families breaking up and separating in our country today, what is your message for the Generation Love conferences?
7. Who are the speakers and performers involved in your conferences? I see that each one must perform with members of their own family. Why is that so important to you?

8. What are some of the topics that will be covered in your conference presentations?

9. Please tell our listeners when and where the conferences are and how they can purchase tickets.

10. Thelma, please let our listeners know how they can connect with you through your website and social media, and how they can purchase your many books, so they might find hope and healing.

11. Thelma, would you please speak to our listeners from your heart and encourage those who are maybe estranged from family members. Also, talk to grandparents who would like to bring their family members closer to Jesus.
